

Thursday, September 12.

Building H3

15.30 Session on Horizon 2020 and Central Europe

Chair: Lucia Gardossi, University of Trieste

15.30 Introduction

Maurizio Fermiglia, Rector of Università degli Studi di Trieste.

15.45 HORIZON 2020: Key Enabling Technologies.

Tomasz Calikowski, European Commission, RTD-E2: Biotechnologies.

16.05 Excellent Science and PEOPLE: funding opportunities and support provided by APRE – Area Science Park to mobility.

Ginevra Tonini, APRE-Area Science Park

16.30 EU Regional Policy: funding opportunities for Central Europe, topics and priorities.

Stefano Brumat, Office for European Social Fund of University of Trieste.

16.50 Introduction to the brokerage session: illustration of results of the survey and proposal for the implementation of a shared database.

17.00 Brokerage session.

Coordinators: Stefano Brumat (University of Trieste), Lucia Gardossi, (University of Trieste), Manuela Masutti (AREA-Science Park, Trieste)

Finalities:

- using information provided by participant through the survey for setting the basis of potential consortia (PEOPLE, COST actions, ERC-Synergy/FET)
- identification of priorities of common interest in HORIZON and European Regional Development programs for implementation of future research networks

18.00 Illustration of cases of success in planning and coordinating EU projects:

The “trans2care project”: Sabina Passamonti, University of Trieste

The “PLASTICE project”: Petra Horvat, Technology National Institute of Chemistry, Ljubljana

The “EMILIE” project: Manuela Masutti (AREA-Science Park, Trieste)

Open discussion

18.30 Closing